The Columbia Browns will meet the Centralia Braves, leaders of the Central Missouri League, at 3:15 o'clock this afternoon at the Fairgrounds. Giltner, the 1917 Tiger southpaw, is slated to twirl for Centralia and Stemons, another member of the Tiger twirling staff, will oppose him. Manager Taylor of the Browns has assembled some of the best baseball material in Columbia with the hopes of winning this afternoon's game and stepping into second place in the league standing.

Athletic Work Here This Summer.

The Missouri Valley Track Meet at Ames yesterday completed the schedule of the athletic department for the 1917 season. Summer school students, however, are not to be without athletic competition. Besides the usual classes in gymnasium, coaching and dancing which are to be held all through the summer session, there will be, in all probability, a golf tournament for all students enrolled for the summer term. The annual summer tennis tournament will also be held. University credit will be given to students enrolling for physical education. The branch of work taken is optional with the student.

Phi Gamma Deltas Are The Champions.

The Phi Gamma Delta fraternity won the Pan Hellenic baseball championship yesterday afternoon on Rollins Field, defeating the Phi Delta Theta fraternity, 8 to 5. There were many exciting features. Placke, Phi Gam center fielder, caught two out of four flies that came his way. Another player hit a home run and only touched two bases. The Phi Delt left fielder, Ridge, tried to steal home in the ninth with two men out and his team four runs behind. The score by innings:

Phi Gams . . . 0 3 0 0 5 0 0 *—8
Phi Deltas . . . 1 0 1 1 1 0 0 0—4

404 SAVITARS GO IN 3 HOURS

First Shipment of Missouri's Annual In Hands of Subscribers.

The 1917 Savitar is out. At noon yesterday the first shipment of 404 books had been delivered, and a long line of anxious purchasers was told they would have to wait for the second shipment. From 9 to 12 o'clock a long string of students filed by the delivery stand.

The 1917 Savitar, edited by Duke N. Parry, contains 504 pages. The book is dedicated to Coach H. F. Schulte. Pictures of the University buildings are followed by individual pictures of the deans. The class pictures are grouped at the top of the page. The University Cadet Corps occupies a large section.

The games section is dedicated to Robert I. Simpson, captain of this year's track team and world's champion hurdler. A team of "Missouri Valley Champions," selected from the women of the University is a feature.

The six University women selected as Savitar Queens each have a full-page group of pictures in a section entitled "Diana's Daughters." The book has many roasts, snapshots, cartoons and jokes. An unusually large list of advertising was secured by J. Paul Johnson, advertising manager.

their ammunition had been exhausted, they inspected their marksmanship, smothered sighs of pride and started homeward.

Scarcely had they stepped from the rifle pit, when a leader of a herd of cattle was attracted by the red sweaters worn by two of the girls. As one animal snorted and started to paw the ground, the girls let out a series of yells and looked for cover. Fences seemed miles away, but when Mr. Baldface made his spring drive the girls smashed Bob Simpson's hurdle record. It was only after they were many yards on the other side of the fence that they regained their courage. They all agreed last night that war preparations as well as war has its horrors.

—they do more
the taste

A cigarette that simply pleases the taste does only a part of what a cigarette should do—Besides pleasing the taste, Chesterfields do another thing, a new thing—Chesterfields let you know you are smoking—they "SATISFY"! And yet, they're mild! The blend does it—it's the unusual skill in proportioning the pure, natural imported and Domestic tobaccos. And the blend can't be copied. Chesterfields will prove to you that there can be more to a cigarette than good taste. Try them and see. Today.
